

LONGVIEW REENTRY CENTER (LRC)

FACT SHEET

ABOUT

Custody Level:

- Minimum Security Classification Facility

Capacity:

- 88 men, 11 women

Annual Operating Budget:

- $2,954,397

LRC is in the central area of Kelso/Longview, bordering the Columbia River and Oregon. Well-established local businesses surround it. LRC has served the community since 1992 and was expanded in 1998. The primary goal is to improve public safety by positively changing lives, reconnecting families and providing residents with the knowledge and skills necessary for success in the community.

Residents who meet the screening criteria may be transferred to LRC 12 months before their earliest release date. The facility is operated by the Washington State Department of Corrections and provides 24/7 safety and security, food services, case management and maintenance. The Department of Corrections owns the building.

COVID-19 Operations: In May 2023, federal and state COVID-19 emergency declarations ended, and DOC transitioned to a new normal operation. DOC continues to follow DOH and CDC guidelines for managing and preventing infection control.

Individuals with Disabilities: The Reentry Centers meet applicable American with Disabilities Act (ADA) standards and DOC policies regarding ADA. We will coordinate with the statewide ADA coordinator prior to the arrival of residents requiring ADA accommodations to ensure the facility has the necessary items. We will ensure the facility continues to meet the accommodated residents' needs during their incarceration.
