Work Release Project Site Navigation

The Department of Corrections (DOC) purchases goods to operate both prisons and offices, contracts for services to inmates, and contracts for construction. All companies, individuals, and non-profits are encouraged to compete for business with the DOC. To do business with the State of Washington and DOC, a company must be an approved vendor with the Department of Enterprise Services (DES) [1].

Purchasing
- About
- Work release facilities serve as a bridge between the inpatient and outpatient community. Incarcerated individuals who complete the work release programs are more likely to be successful in maintaining employment, stable housing, and in paying legal financial obligations. Recent research conducted by the Washington State Institute for Public Policy indicates that work release programs have a positive cost/benefit impact. For every dollar spent, $3.83 is returned to the state.
