Discussion	The four counties identified as possible future Work Release facility locations include Snohomish, Chelan, King, and Pierce. DOC is currently meeting with all counties and facilitating community advisory meetings.

Theo Lewis & Dan King
Slides	Data – Sample duration validity Data – Work Release vs. Prison Data trends over time
Discussion	The data identifies the counties with the highest need for Work Release resources based on individuals releasing to that area. DOC ultimately wants to put a new facility in a location where Work Release participants will be the most successful and have access to the services they need, which is not necessarily going to be the cheapest location.

Discussion	In response for earlier requests of testimonials, two video interviews were presented. One interview included two male Work Release participants who share their personal experience in work release. Another interview included a female Work Release participant who shared her experience in work release and how it assisted her in gaining employment at a local employer, MOD Pizza.

	Draft Workplan – 150 Beds
Discussion	The Legislature has put an aggressive timeline on the expansion by asking for 50 beds to be ready to occupy by June 2020 and then an additional 150 beds by June 2021. RFP timeline: December 27, 2019: RFP out for solicitation January 17, 2020: Pre-proposal meeting (question/answer session for those interested in submitting a letter of interest) January 22, 2020: deadline to submit letter of interest February 13, 2020: final RFP proposals due
Questions/Concerns	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Why do we want a leased facility rather than own it? • What is the ideal building/location? An empty nursing home or maybe a hotel. A building that has a kitchen, day room/visit room, office spaces, single bed rooms and/or dorm style rooms. • The identified need in North Central Counties is 48-50 beds? • What is the time commitment for reviewing proposals/siting from committee members?
