Education Programs

- DOC contracts with the State Board of Community & Technical Colleges (SBCTC) to provide basic education and career and technical associate degrees at each of the state's 12 adult facilities.
- Both CI & Education also offer a variety of pre-apprenticeships programs statewide.
- On average, individuals who participate in correction education programs have 43 percent lower odds of returning to prison than persons who do not, according to a 2014 study by the RAND Corporation.
- For every dollar invested in education, up to $19.80 is saved from reduced recidivism, according to the Washington State Institute for Public Policy (2018).
