The following checklist will be completed when yellow identification cards are issued to contract staff who provide services to more than one facility.

This requirement is for initial training as well as annual training for all yellow identification card contractors.

Documentation will be forwarded to each facility where services may be provided by the contract staff within 30 days of initial hire and by July 15 of each year for annual training thereafter.

The employee who issues the yellow identification card, no matter where the contract staff will provide services, will be responsible to share the documentation as required for audits and facility records for each facility.
