MIRANDA WARNING WAIVER

Arrested individual

1. You have the right to remain silent.
2. Anything you say can be used against you in a court of law.
3. You have the right at this time to talk to a lawyer and have him/her present with you while you are being questioned.
4. If you cannot afford to hire a lawyer, one will be appointed to represent you before any questioning, if you wish.
5. You can decide at any time to exercise these rights and not answer any questions or make any statements.

WAIVER

After the warning and in order to secure a waiver, the following questions should be asked and an affirmative reply secured to each question.*

1. Do you understand each of these rights I have explained to you?
2. Having these rights in mind, do you wish to talk to us now?

Regardless of Miranda applicability, Washington State requires that the following advisement be given to every individual taken into custody:

You have the right to Counsel. If you are unable to pay for Counsel, you are entitled to have one provided without charge.

ADDITIONAL WARNING TO JUVENILE

If you are under the age of 18, anything you say can be used against you in a juvenile court prosecution for a juvenile offense and can also be used against you in an adult court criminal prosecution if the juvenile court decides that you are to be tried as an adult.

*I have been given the Miranda warning on: ________________

Date

I understand each of the rights explained to me. I am willing to talk to the Community Corrections Officer (CCO) now.
