Prison Drug Offender Sentencing Alternative (DOSA) - Fact Sheet Supplement

Of the 1174 individuals sentenced to a DOSA in 2016, in Fiscal Year (FY) 2020, 817 individuals left the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections (DOC) after serving a Prison (DOSA) sentence and community supervision requirement imposed by the courts. These sentences were imposed in 36 counties.

Revocations

Statewide, 46% of Prison DOSA individuals released from DOC jurisdiction in FY 2020 completed their Prison DOSA sentence. 100 incarcerated individuals (8.52%) had their DOSA sentence revoked while serving the prison portion of their sentence. The remaining 468 were serving the community supervision portion of their sentence when revoked. For counties with five or more DOSA incarcerated individuals, the completion rates varied from 36% in Thurston County to 69% in Lewis County. Below are charts showing the statewide completion rate and five select counties.

Residential Drug Offender Sentencing Alternative (DOSA) - Fact Sheet Supplement

In 2016, 840 individuals were sentenced to the Residential DOSA and in Fiscal Year (FY) 2020, 741 individuals left the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections (DOC) after serving a Residential DOSA sentence imposed by the courts. These sentences were imposed in 31 counties.

Revocations

Statewide, 40% of the Residential DOSA individuals released (741) from DOC jurisdiction in FY 2020 completed their Residential DOSA sentence successfully. For counties with five or more DOSA individuals, the completion rates varied from 17% in Walla Walla County to 78% in Douglas County. Below are charts showing the statewide completion rate of select counties. King, Snohomish, Spokane, and Clark counties have specialized therapeutic courts with dedicated judicial calendars that provide immediate incentives for positive gains in the individual's recovery as well as sanctions for violations. Because of the immediacy of judicial response, DOSA revocations may be higher for Residential DOSA than Prison DOSA.
