

Parent-Teacher-Student Teleconferences

(Spring & Fall)

Can I participate?

- You must be the parent of a school age youth.
- You must have the agreement and support of the child's caregiver or a court order.
- You cannot have any existing No-Contact Orders with the child, guardian of the child, and/or anyone involved with the confirmation process.

What do I need to do?

- Request a Parent-Teacher-Student Teleconference Form from your unit counselor.
- Complete the form and return to your unit counselor.
- There is no cost to the inmate or their family to participate in the Parent-Teacher-Student Teleconference.

How will the teleconference be set up?

The Classification Counselor (CC) and the Family Services Specialist (FSS) will work together to:

- Verify that all participation requirements have been met.
- Contact the teacher to schedule the teleconference.
- Assign staff to facilitate the teleconference.
- Place you on the callout.

Get involved in your child's education. They need your support.
