Peninsula Reentry Center (PRC) located in Kitsap County and within the city limits of Port Orchard. The facility is part of an industrial area where there are a handful of locally established businesses. PRC was constructed in 1995 and became operational in 1996. In the past the facility has earned accreditation from the American Correctional Association. PRC is a co-ed 82 bed facility for adult residents with the primary goal of improving public safety by positively changing lives, reconnecting with family, and providing residents with the knowledge and skills necessary for success in the community.

The average population age range is 18 to 65-years-old with an average length in stay of 4-6 months but can extend to 12 months if participating in the Graduated Reentry (GRE) program. The facility is fully operated by the State of Washington Department of Corrections and provides 24/7 safety and security, food services and maintenance. The building is owned by the state of Washington.
