About

Tri-Cities Reentry Center (TCRC) is in the southeastern area of Washington state. The facility is located near the Historic downtown area in the city of Kennewick. TCRC has served the community since 1999, and in the past earned accreditation from the American Correctional Association. TCRC is a co-ed 40 bed facility for adult individuals with the primary goals of improving public safety by positively changing lives and assisting their transition into the community.

The average population age range is 19 to 67-years-old with an average length in stay of 4-6 months but can extend to 12 months if participating in the Graduated Reentry (GRE) program. This is state-run facility that provides 24/7 safety and security, food services and maintenance. The building is owned by the Department of Corrections.
