<td>Facility Count</td>
<td>Total Population: 140</td>
<td>MCCCW's Family Email Box: DOCMCCCWFamilies@doc1.wa.gov</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Facility Family Email Box</td>
<td>The department is launching a new local facility email box for each prison that will be a consistent channel for families to receive facility-specific information. The mailbox will be used to receive facility specific information and communications such as announcements, notifications, alerts, meeting links, and messages from the Superintendents. In addition to the facility mailboxes, visitors may sign up to receive messages from the Family Services Unit and other messages with statewide impact by emailing docFamilyServicesUnit@doc1.wa.gov.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Family Council Policy Rewrite</td>
<td>*SFC is rewriting this policy. It might be of interest to staff (and family members). *WCCW and Mission Creek family councils would like to discuss creating a separate SFC for the women’s division. I’m already attending WCCW meetings and receiving mass communications emails from Melissa Johnson.</td>
<td>Darnelle- Unable to attend meeting, will be tabled for next meeting</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Civil Survival</td>
<td>Possible partnership with civil survival to support reentry planning. (Rep. Tarra Simmons’ nonprofit in Bremerton). Tarra is VERY interested in collaborating with Mission Creek!</td>

<tr>
<td>Family Friendly Mother’s Day Event</td>
<td>Participants were able to have 2 full hours to design a special wooden jewelry box to send to a special female in their life. They were provided all supplies and wrote a meaningful card and picked out a special necklace to put into the box. This event was special to the population as they were able to express to their special person how much they appreciate them.</td>
