POLICY:

I. Actual or constructive possession of a firearm, explosive, ammunition, or body armor will be considered a violation or a new crime for individuals on parole and for individuals on probation or community supervision/placement/custody whose right to bear arms has been revoked.

A. Individuals who are on active duty in one of the military services, including active Reserves and National Guard, may possess/control firearms, body armor, ammunition, or explosives only while actually engaged in military duty.

DIRECTIVE:

I. Response

A. Case managers, Community Corrections Supervisors, and Community Corrections Specialists will immediately confiscate or cause confiscation of any firearm, ammunition, or body armor found in an individual’s possession.

1. The confiscated item(s) will be documented on DOC 05-825 Evidence/Property Record - Field and handled per DOC 420.395 Evidence/Property Procedures for Field.

2. The case manager will notify:

   a. Local law enforcement and, as appropriate, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms of an individual’s possession/control of firearms.

   b. The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms of an individual’s possession of body armor.

B. When an item is suspected or determined to be an explosive, the case manager will contact the Washington State Patrol and/or local law enforcement.

C. The case manager will take appropriate action for violations or failure to Failure to Obey All Laws per DOC 460.130 Response to Violations and New Criminal Activity.
II. Disposition

A. Confiscated firearms, ammunition, and body armor that are not turned over to a local, state, or federal law enforcement agency as evidence for a new prosecution will be disposed of per DOC 420.395 Evidence/Property Procedures for Field.
